Wednesday - Sunday, 12:00 - 4:00 pm
September 12 - January 16

For 150 years our citizens have strived to look their best. Fashions come and go, which reflect changes in the people and culture of a City. Renowned fashion historian Ivan Sayers has partnered with New Westminster's Museum and Archives to tell the story of our City through our fantastic collection of costume representing the past 150 years.
